Subject: Help us win £150 in the #ILoveSmallCharities competition

Body copy:

Dear [Name],

You can help us to win £150 in this year's #ILoveSmallCharities Small Charity Week competitions just by posting a message on Facebook, a picture on Instagram or by Tweeting. The competitions are open from June 18th – 23rd June.

The charity that gets the most messages of support on each social media channel wins a £150 donation.

It's really easy to enter your message.

1. Take a photo of yourself holding up a poster with the following text: "I love (charity name) because (why you love us)".
2. Upload the photo to either Twitter, Facebook or Instagram.

For Twitter entries, tweet your photo message, making sure you include the @name for your small charity and the #ILoveSmallCharities hashtag. You must also mention @SCWeek18 in your tweet so all of our entries are acknowledged and counted.

For Facebook entries, post your photo message to the Small Charity Week Facebook wall, making sure you include the name of your small charity and the #ILoveSmallCharities hashtag.

For Instagram entries, post your photo message to your Instagram account, making sure you tag the small charity and use the #ILoveSmallCharities hashtag. You must also tag @SCWeek18 in your photo so all of our entries are acknowledged and counted.

Small Charity Week is brought to you by The FSI, registered charity no. 1123384

Although we would prefer a photo if you don't have a camera you are welcome to simply write a message of love, following the instructions given above.

So get creative and tell the world why you love us between June 18th- 23rd. Please note any messages of love submitted outside these dates won't be counted.

For more information about the competition visit the Small Charity Week website.
