

Small Charity Big Impact Awards 2020

Small charities, Community Organisations and Community Interest Companies (CICs) around the country carry out vital work but in many cases people are not aware of their impact. To highlight the work of small charitable organisations and the impact they make on a local, national and international level the Foundation for Social Improvement (FSI) are running the fourth FSI Small Charity Big Impact Awards.

Criteria and Rules

- Only charities, community organisations and CICs with a turnover under £1million can enter. You must also have a charity or CIC registration number or HMRC exemption number. Alternatively, you must be able to demonstrate that you are:
 - recognised by/registered by a governing body for example you hold a Community Amateur Sports Club registration number (CASC) issued by HMRC or
 - Have in place a small charity constitution, governing documents and equivalent board of trustees.
- Your charitable organisation must have signed up to FSI membership. Membership is free and provides you with access to the FSI's free and heavily subsidised support for the small charity sector
- All entries must relate to a charity's impact achieved during the past 24 months
- The deadline for submissions is Friday 3rd April. Entries will not be accepted after this point.
- By submitting your entry you are agreeing that the FSI and Small Charity Week are able to publish information included within your submission for promotional purposes
- Your entry will only be assessed if you have provided details under each question area within the application form
- By submitting your entry you are confirming that all information submitted in the application is accurate
- If you are a shortlisted charity you agree to provide any further information that the FSI may require of you in the timeframes provided
- The judging panel will make their decisions solely based on the information provided within the application form. The judging panel's decision is final
- To benefit from the film of your charity, a representative must be made available for filming on a date from the 28th April – 12th June

How to Enter

Simply fill out the short application form and send us a high resolution photo. Entries must be submitted by Friday 3rd April.